

Students for Disability Advocacy Awareness Speaker VCU Alumnus Jenson Larrimore

Join Jenson for a presentation of his own journey towards disability advocacy. Step by step, he will show you how and why he chose to fight. Stay for a discussion on how stigma can be changed; to continue the dialogue about integration and disclosure and to re-frame the public perspective.

When: Thursday, March 23, 2017 from 1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Where: Forum Room, University Student Commons,
Monroe Campus
Lunch will be provided

Sponsored by Equity and Access Services VCU. This is an RSVP only event, please RSVP by Friday March 17. Please respond to mcmahonpl2@vcu.edu, or call (804) 828-8532.
